

INTERVENTIONAL RADIOLOGY SOCIETY OF AUSTRALASIA INC

ABN 99 043 289 493

Expression of Interest (EOI) – Junior Committee Member

Overview

The Interventional Radiology Society of Australasia (IRSA) is a clinician-led member organisation established to pursue the charitable purposes of advancing health through the speciality of interventional radiology, and principally, to promote the prevention and treatment of diseases in humans through interventional radiology.

IRSA is governed by the Committee of Management of the Association ('the Committee'). The Committee includes the IRSA office-bearers, who are referred to collectively as 'the Executive'. The Committee and its Executive have responsibility for, and oversight of, the core objectives of IRSA.

The Position

The IRSA Junior Executive Member, as a member of this Committee, is responsible for the ongoing development, facilitation, promotion and review of IRSA business across Australia and New Zealand. The Junior Member is an appointed role and does not have voting rights.

For a full position description see document attached.

Application Process

Applications for appointed members of the Committee must be submitted to the IRSA Executive Officer on the EOI Form below, accompanied by a copy of the applicant's CV.

Appointments will be made by the Executive of the Committee. Applicants will be advised of the outcome of their application in writing, no later than six weeks after submission.
